

Mission

The New World Symphony, America's Orchestral Academy, prepares gifted graduates of prestigious music programs for successful professional careers in orchestras and ensembles. NWS has launched the careers of more than 700 Fellows now making a difference in the profession worldwide.

Friends of New World Symphony promotes classical music to a younger generation while broadening their philanthropic opportunities through support of the New World Symphony.

Friends Concert Series

Selected with you in mind, these concerts are dynamic and elegant, fitting the sophisticated style of you, our Friends! You can experience a night of music with other fun, young classical music lovers. VIP members will have the ability to see the Fellows onstage and in their element through the Friends Concert Series, featuring performances at the Lincoln Theatre and the Adrienne Arsht Center.

Symphony After Hours

Symphony After Hours is a series of chic late-night parties featuring intriguing musical performances at beautiful and unique locations around town. The events include complimentary libations, light fare and lots of fun. Friends events make going to the Symphony simply "the thing to do!"
