The New World Symphony admits Fellows of any race, color, creed, sex, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, family responsibility, national origin, ancestry, handicap, or religion to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to Fellows at NWS. It does not discriminate in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies and other NWS-administered programs.

The New World Symphony strongly discourages musicians from discontinuing a degree program in order to participate in its fellowship program. Written verification of your degree status may be requested from the institution you attended.

The New World Symphony is recognized for artistic excellence by the State of Florida and receives funding through the Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs and the Florida Arts Council and the Board of County Commissioners; the City of Miami; the Miami Beach Visitor and Convention Authority and the City of Miami Beach; the Tourist Development Council; and the National Endowment for the Arts.
